

Darren Altman – Impressionist

Darren is a voiceover artist and celebrity impressionist, who reached the live semi finals of Britain's Got Talent 2016.

At the end of his audition, Darren received incredible comments from all 4 judges, who simultaneously rose to their feet and gave him a standing ovation. Their praise was unanimous:

Simon Cowell

"Of all the years we've had impressionists on this show, I genuinely think this is the best and most original act we've had. Absolutely hilarious Darren, a million percent yes!"

Alesha Dixon

"Very simple, brilliantly funny from start to finish. Every impression was spot on. It was a faultless audition; I'm very excited about you."

Amanda Holden

"What I loved about this act was that it was really intelligent and different. I loved the way each voice morphed into the next."

David Walliams

"It was brilliantly funny from start to finish and a lot of those impressions I've never heard people do before. I'm excited about what you're going to do next."

Darren is a professional voiceover artist with his own broadcast quality studio, where he sends out voiceovers all over the world. He can be heard voicing adverts for TV and radio, playing characters in animations and computer games and much more!

A trained musician and jazz drummer, he has recorded music for film and TV at Abbey Road studios, drummed for West End shows, played regularly at the world famous Ronnie Scotts jazz club and toured the world with jazz and pop groups.

---

His musical ear and attention to detail has lead Darren to deconstruct voices and give the audience a hilarious master class in how to deliver celebrity impressions!

In his very first year of performing, he reached the semi finals of the coveted Amused Moose standup comedy competition, the final of The Laughing Horse comedy competition, entertained audiences on cruise ships, performed for corporate and charity events and has been gigging regularly on the comedy circuit.

His unique take on impersonations and infectious personality will guarantee laughs!

-----

W: www.darrenaltman.com

Management: RBM Comedy. 020 7630 7733