

DARREN ALTMAN

VOICEOVER • PRESENTER • STANDUP

Darren Altman is a voiceover artist and impressionist, who reached the live semi finals of Britain's Got Talent, performing celebrity impressions, receiving great plaudits from the judges.

"Of all the years we've had impressionists on this show, I genuinely think this is the best and most original act we've had. Absolutely hilarious Darren, a million percent yes!" - Simon Cowell

"Very simple; brilliantly funny from start to finish. Every impression was spot on. It was a faultless audition; I'm very excited about you." - Alesha Dixon

"What I loved about this act was that it was really intelligent and different. I loved the way each voice morphed into the next." - Amanda Holden

"It was brilliantly funny from start to finish and a lot of those impressions I've never heard people do before. I'm excited about what you're going to do next." - David Walliams

A professional voiceover artist, Darren works from his broadcast quality studio and can be heard all over the world, voicing adverts for tv and radio, promos, playing characters in animations and computer games, in-store adverts and more. He has won numerous awards for his work, including the prestigious One Voice and VOX Awards.

Darren has lent his voice to some of the biggest brands on the planet, including Disney, Netflix, Nike, Coca Cola, ESPN, Sky, BT Sport, X-Box, BBC tv and radio, McDonalds, Burger King, NBC, ITV, The Discovery Channel, The History Channel, Intel, Jaguar, Playstation, Amazon.com, Nintendo Wii & Sony Movies.

As a presenter, he enjoys hosting events and award ceremonies and has worked alongside Claudia Winkleman, Joel Dommett, Tess Daly, Pat Sharp, Rory Bremner and GB Olympic swimmer Mark Foster in his role as the "voice of God" for award ceremonies.

Darren is busy performing his standup material in comedy clubs around the country and can be heard presenting shows on Radio Jackie, across SW London and Surrey.

In his previous life as an accomplished jazz and studio drummer, he has recorded music for film and tv at Abbey Road studios, drummed for West End shows, played regularly at the world famous Ronnie Scotts jazz club and toured the world with jazz and pop groups.

W: www.darrenaltman.com

Comedy Management: RBM - 020 7630 7733